Continue to the city's colossal stairway, Cascade, with over 570 steps. Besides one of the city's mesmeric symbols, it treats you with the most unhindered views over Opera House, Swan Lake and Mount Ararat, among others.

As the tour proceeds to the Republic Square, be ready to see the dancing water fountains and admire other attractions such as the National Gallery. Apart from these, be sure to take a look at the marvelous structures built using pink and white tufa stones, which shed some light on the region's architectural beauty and legacy. Before the tour winds up with a return hotel transfer, you also get to explore Vernissage, one of the city's largest souvenir markets.
